

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NATIONAL FAME AWARDS PROGRAM MAKES CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR 2015 EVENT

SCOTTSDALE, Az. – July 1, 2014 – The Foodservice Achievement Management Excellence (FAME) Awards program is making its call for nominations for the 26th annual ceremony & celebration honoring excellence among school nutrition professionals. The event is scheduled for Jan. 11, 2015 at the Omni Resort & Spa at Montelucia in Scottsdale, Az., located minutes from the School Nutrition Association’s (SNA) School Nutrition Industry Conference in Phoenix.

Nominations will be taken online or via a downloadable form at www.fameawards.net until Oct. 8, 2014. Those who “like” the FAME Awards page on www.facebook.com will receive news and event updates throughout the year.

Eligible nominees include members of the SNA that are in good standing with the industry. Six categories will be awarded including one Gold Award for School Foodservice Director of the Year and five Silver Awards – Leadership, Spirit, Rising Star, Special Achievement and Friend of Child Nutrition. The selection committee is made up of 2014 FAME Award winners and industry media partners.

For 25 years the FAME Awards have been honoring school nutrition professionals who raise industry standards by tackling challenges within their school districts and communities. This prestigious program is sponsored by Basic American Foods, Schwan’s Food Service, Inc., and Tyson Foods, Inc.
